

Opening Statements.

Hello my name is Ray DeFiore, and I have often been misunderstood, so I wanted to give some opening statements.

First and this is important, I am going to use some words, however what you think I mean, and what I really mean may be two different things.

For an example, if I say the words God's Law you may think that I mean more restrictions. What I really mean is celebration. What I really mean is miraculous healings blind eyes being opened, breasts growing back amputated limbs growing back. What I really mean is many millions of men having great relationships with their women, really happiness and excitement in intimacy and much more intimacy. What I mean by the term God's law is working towards and knowing what you God's given assignment really is. I am talking about lowering rent for millions of people for apartments and the majority of men to have families, and wives. Where women also will have received their assignment, for the purposes of healing people and encouragement, and very little if any crime. And people will feel loved. That is what mean when I use the term God's Law. I do not mean more restrictions.

When I use the terms Repentance, or True Repentance, You may think that I mean kneeling by your bed and telling Jesus tht you're sorry. What I really mean is for you to be a winner, in the truest truest sense of the word. I have isolated 3 easy steps involving true repentance, follow these steps till the end of time and this guarantees a great life will be yours. It guarantees that you will do something great in your life.

When I use the term godly women, you may think that I mean religious fanatic, talking about Jesus this and Jesus that. What I really mean is a smart womant, who nows how to listen for the Voice of the Holy Spirit and has received her God given job assignment, but she is probably very quiet about what her job assignment is. Her husband is very glad to see her, and their relationship is very good. Godly woman means she is a crown and glory to her husband. She got her husbands back. That is what I mean by godly woman.

And also I am 100percent pro women, and am not anti woman at all, I am anti Jesebel and anti wick ed. We must repent as a nation and becaome the winners that God designed us to be. I have to be 100 percent pro women for several reasions.

Women will have to listen to my entire message, before they start screaming their complaint. Ladies please put down your weapons, I am not your enemy.

I do not belkieve that my ideas have originated in my brain. I believe that my ideas originated in heaven, through the filtration process of these wise councillors. I Believe that there are these wise councillors up in heaven and they make decisions concerning what goes on earth. And they gave me these ideas. But we are never to pray to them, ever. They will take serious offence to tke your worship off of God the Father.

And these are my Oprning statements.
